Demographics

Victorville is a vibrant city located in Southern California at the high-point between Los Angeles and Las Vegas. It is the leading city for both industry and retail in the High Desert region and is home to approx. 135,000 residents. Known for its clean air, abundant mountain vistas, and family-friendly recreational activities, Victorville offers a unique blend of natural beauty and cultural attractions. The city's economy is diverse, with key industries including retail trade, health care, social assistance, and transportation. New developments including a 1.3 million SF Amazon warehouse, a 475,000-square-foot Iron Mountain warehouse, and a new 170-bed assisted living PACE center are expected to boost the local economy, create job opportunities, and enhance the quality of life for residents, making Victorville an attractive place for both businesses and families.
